SPECIAL EVENTS SERVICE

For Sabres games, and selected events at the HSBC Arena, a later train departs the Events Only Station 30 minutes after the end of the event. Patrons may call 855-7211, or visit nfta.com, up to five days in advance of an event to learn if late service will be provided.

See Route #8 Main bus schedule for additional service.

TAKE THE

FARE COLLECTION

- Metro Rail features self-service fare collection. To speed you on your way, there are no turnstiles or ticket takers, but you must carry proof that you paid your fare. This is called "proof of payment."
- Metro Rail tickets are sold by vending machines at all Metro Rail stations. One-way tickets are good for one ride in one direction within one hour of purchase and on connecting buses. Round trip tickets are good for one trip in each direction any time of the day of purchase, but are not valid on buses.
- "Proof-of-payment" can be a bus-to-rail proof-of-payment ticket, Metro day pass, monthly Metro pass or your rail ticket. Tickets may be purchased from vending machines at any station, but be sure to purchase one before you board the train. A token is not accepted as "proof-of-payment." You must use your token to purchase a ticket.
- At some time during your journey, you may be asked to show your proof of payment to a Metro Ticket Inspector. If you do not have it, you'll be issued a summons, similar to that given for a parking violation. To avoid unnecessary expense and embarrassment, remember to purchase a ticket, or have your transfer or pass handy before you ride.
- You may ride free between stations on the mall! This area is called the Fare Free Zone. However, if your ride takes you underground, you must pay a fare.
- Student School Passes are only valid on trips to/from home and school using the most direct routing.

- Don't jump between rail cars.
- Don't climb onto surface station boarding ramps. Use the stairs.
- Stand behind the yellow line when waiting for trains underground.
